

KRA – Digital Marketing Trainer

One-Time Responsibilities:

- Create a structured course plan covering SEO, PPC, Social Media, Analytics, Email Marketing, and AI tools.
- Prepare initial training decks, case studies, campaign walkthroughs, tool guides, and project templates.
- Upload materials, assessments, and reference content on the LMS or learning portal.
- Define real-world projects for students (e.g., SEO audit, Google Ads campaign, Social strategy).

Daily Responsibilities:

- Conduct daily live digital marketing sessions as per schedule.
- Mark attendance of students on ERP
- Prepare training materials and keep the syllabus updated
- Prepare day wise tasks for daily topics
- Attend trainers meet and give feedback of students
- Collect and analyze session feedback to continuously improve delivery.

Weekly Responsibilities:

- Conduct QNA / performance Test on weekly basis
- Share feedback of students to the manager
- Conduct revision sessions.
- Prepare notes for at least one topic / tool from the syllabus
- Get feedback of the training from students and Manager, and work on the potholes
- Prepare questions on each topic, which is commonly asked by students

- Conduct quizzes or practical assessments at the end of every major module.

Monthly Responsibilities:

- Conduct 1–2 mock interviews or resume sessions to improve placement readiness.
- Update content with latest strategies/tools
- Review and validate all marketing tools and platforms being taught for relevancy.
- Organize or participate guest session or workshop with an industry expert.
- Prepare next month's planning
- Prepare report on student's attendance and Performance
- Research and develop new course content or syllabus